

State Board of Trade.
RENO, Nev., Dec. 5, 1889.
EDITOR MORNING APPEAL: Dear Sir:—At a meeting of citizens held at Reno, Nevada, on November 22, 1889, it was resolved to take steps to organize a State Board of Trade. With that object in view, the following gentlemen were appointed to take such action as they deemed necessary: Francis G. Newlands, W. O. H. Martin, R. L. Fulton, Thomas Fitch, S. D. King, D. C. Wheeler, William Thompson, R. R. Bigelow, M. D. Foley and James Mayberry.

Pursuant to instructions, the Committee beg leave to address you on the subject and inform you that they have arranged for a meeting to be held at the McKissick Opera House, Reno, Nevada, on December 21, 1889, and desire the presence of all the leading men in the State, in order to make the contemplated movement a success.

You are most earnestly invited to be present and lend your aid in establishing such a Board.

Its objects are as follows:

First—To make a permanent effort to induce a reinforcement of industrial population, to bring our State from under the cloud of depression that has hung over us so long and place her where she justly belongs.

Second—To encourage the people of any section of the country to develop the resources of that section.

Third—To give information to those seeking the investment of capital.

Fourth—To give information to intending settlers.

Fifth—To collect information concerning the agricultural, mineral and other resources of the country.

Sixth—To discuss the general good of the commonwealth.

Seventh—To inaugurate movements in legislation, both State and National.

Eighth—To bring into co-operative relation the mind, muscle and capital of a community, and to give the effort to induce immigration and the development of the resources of the State intelligent direction.

It is hoped that the leading men of the State will be present and give their views. Hon. W. H. Mills of San Francisco, a member of the California Board of Trade, will be present and address the meeting, showing what advantage a similar organization has been to that State.

We sincerely hope you can make it convenient to be present, for we believe the movement will redound to the best interest of every industry and we respectfully urge that if you cannot attend in person that you will join with your neighbor and see that you have a representative present.

R. R. BIGELOW, Chairman.
ALLEN C. BRAGO, Secretary.
